

Tootsies

Tootsie Bess was a singer/comedienne with "Big Jeff & The Radio Playboys." Jeff Bess was the bandleader and Tootsie's husband. She recorded, "My Little Red Wagon" and "Tootsies Wall of Fame."

Tootsie was known to slip $5s and $10s into the pockets of luckless writers and pickers. It was said that she had a cigar box behind the counter full of IOU's from where she had given drinks and food to hungry pickers and writers. Supposedly, at each year's end, a bunch of Opry Performers would take all the IOUs and pay Tootsie so she wouldn't lose the money.

Famous early customers were Kris Kristofferson, Garon Young, Willie Nelson, Tom T. Hall, Hank Cochran, Mel Tillis, Roger Miller, Webb Pierce, Waylon Jennings, Patsy Cline and many more.
